Tribute from Gloria L. Haberlack

Relation: Cousin

My Sympathy, heartfelt thoughts & Prayers to Loretta, children & extended family. Barry was the most special cousin. His laughter, smiles and kindness will always be remembered. We spent many happy times on the farm as kids, in the summers. I've always had the fondest of memories over the years. Barry.....I know our Father in heaven opened his arms to you, many loved ones were there to meet you as you were lifted up on the arms of the Angels. We will never forget you. I pray for strength & comfort for Loretta to carry on, and that she has many loving friends to help her through. Barry, we are so thankful & take comfort in knowing where you've gone. You'll be one of the loved ones to meet us one day....Untill we meet again.Gloria. Also, condolences from Hank, Evelyn & Glenn.

Tribute from Karen and Scott Robertson

Relation: Knew the family from La Ronge

To Loretta, Jennifer, and Adam: Scott and I were so saddened to hear of Barry's passing. Loretta, we know that when you look at your children and grandchildren, you will be reminded of your dear partner and husband. We are sending you our deepest sympathies. Jennifer and Adam, it is hard to lose a dad, as both Scott and I know. You must be strong now for your mom and each other. Our sincere sympathies to you both. Thinking of you all, and sending our prayers. Karen and Scott Robertson, Air Ronge

Tribute from Ricahrd and Thelma Nagel

Relation: Neighbors on the old farm!!

Our sincere sympathies to you and your children and families Loretta--it is such a hard thing to loose your solemate in life but that strength you had together will help you to carry on for each other!!! No matter what age that we loose someone--from young to old- we have to trust that the Lord knows who he is calling!! Take care of each other.
