Randy was a true Edmonton Oiler fan and loved watching TV, the TSN sports channel and always had a box of tissues close by for those tear moving shows & movies. Randy also loved to cook, especially being the chef with Xmas dinner or when friends and family would visit, and in his younger year's charcoal sketching and drafting. Gardening became a favourite pass time and arranging moss hanging baskets which many people from Nakusp admired. When Randy was not being an incredible chef, arranging flowers, sketching pencil art, or a sought out Master of Ceremonies he and Trisha would travel to Hawaii, which was one of his favorite places.
